case of the female. The parties were held to bail for examination.

THE DOCTOR'S SURGEON.—An inquest was held yesterday at the Bellevue Hospital over the body that was found in a dissecting room at New York. The coroner examined the body, and gave it as his opinion that death ensued by natural causes, and that the cause was not caused where it was found.

The jury rendered a verdict of "dead from natural causes."

OUR BOYS ABROAD.—Three well dressed and intelligent boys were arrested on Tuesday in Philadelphia, and were sent right to the night in the police station. They are from New York, and arrived in Philadelphia on Monday last, and took lodgings in the York Hotel. They had a good time, and spent some of their evenings there, and were without funds, but was in possession of a breastpin valued $100. This he offered for sale, with the understanding that he would receive half the price.

They each had a dirk knife, and one was armed with a pistol.
